

CRUISE EXPRESS

Media Release – November 7, 2011

New River Cruise Package in Unspoiled Burma

11-Nights From $4999 Including Return Flights

The worldwide boom in river cruising has reached the unspoiled country of Burma where Australians can now explore this exotic, culturally intact country aboard luxury, colonially-styled river boats as part of new fly/cruise packages.

Cruise Express is offering an 11-night package that features an eight-night cruise along Burma's beautiful Irrawaddy River between Prome and Mandalay aboard the boutique, 64-passenger Orient Pandaw, which is air-conditioned and handcrafted in brass and teak. Along the way, passengers will visit spectacular gilded pagodas, Buddhist monasteries, unspoiled villages, markets and schools and other community projects supported by international tourism companies and river cruise passengers.

Available from June, 2012, to April, 2013, the new package includes return flights from Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide or Perth, one-night's deluxe accommodation pre-cruise in Yangon (Rangoon), the eight-night cruise including all meals, soft drinks, local beers and spirits, two-nights deluxe accommodation after the cruise in Mandalay, daily breakfast on land and extensive sightseeing with local guides along the way.

The 11-night package is available from $4999 per person, twin-share.

Call Cruise Express on 1300 766 537 or visit www.cruiseexpress.com.au for details.

Media contact: Andrew Mevissen, Peak PR, 0431 883 057 or: andrew@peakpr.com.au