See it, feel it, and remember it forever

Foregone conclusion, lucky break, or a boil-over...nobody knows who'll be holding Rugby World Cup 2011 at fulltime. But, regardless of your allegiance, you can be sure of seeing the world's most skillful players at their best by being on this cruise.

It has been 12 long years since Australia hoisted the Webb Ellis Cup in victory and where better to bring it home from than New Zealand. However, nineteen teams are determined to stop us so you need to add your support.

Quarter-finals, semi-finals, Bronze Final, the Final—just make a choice from either of these cruises and your seat is guaranteed.

With its stadium within easy walking distance of everywhere, Wellington is tailor-made for watching the best game in the universe and celebrating the results with friends afterwards. While Auckland has spared no expense in rebuilding Eden Park Rugby Stadium to ensure it offers the finest conditions for hosting an absolute showcase of Rugby: the semi-finals, the Bronze Final and a spell-binding Final.

And, by choosing either, you get the comfort of a magnificent superliner loaded with entertainment and amenities for your non-Rugby moments.

Everything will be taken care of from the moment you board. You need only unpack and be ready for this Rugby nirvana because nothing compares with being there and nothing can match this cruise for taking you there.

LUXURY AFLOAT

78,000 TONS OF RUGBY-CENTRIC FUN, DON'T MISS KICK-OFF

You'll delight in myriad variety of food and the choice to eat it formally or casually—in the open sea air, the comfort of a restaurant or your own stateroom. And with eight lounges and bars, you'll find options for after-dinner enjoyment around almost every corner.

There's also a wealth of organised activities, including comedy, cinema and live theatre. But perhaps you'll prefer to get the endorphins pumping with some rock-climbing, an outdoor jog or a spot of kickboxing and then sink into one of six whirlpools to recharge the batteries.
